Healing is Here—Week 2 A 49-Day Devotional Journey of Healing Through the Bible God and You and Me CREATIONS The daily devotions on prayer for physical healing continue in Week 2! Sickness and miraculous healing are shrouded in mystery. Not many know how to pray for themselves or a loved one when they are sick. Not only that, most people don't feel confident that God is willing to help them when they pray. After John W. Nichols (author of GOD is HERE) discovered his daughter had many symptoms of autism, he began reading the Bible with new eyes, trying to understand healing for today. Soon he felt impressed to fast for 7 weeks and pray through Scriptures about healing daily. Healing is Here: A 49-Day Devotional Journey of Healing Through the Bible, compiles the author's notes and prayers during his fast. It has been organized to apply to anyone who wants to learn about healing at their own pace, with Scriptural support, suggested prayers, and journaling prompts. (There is no requirement to fast while going through this devotional) John systematically teaches the mysteries he has unlocked over the course of four years of studying and applying Biblical Christian healing. He wrote this devotional with the hope of helping others who are in similar circumstances: those who desperately need healing, aren't sure how to pray, and are wondering if God is willing to help. Week 2 covers verses that reveal: Jesus didn't do things we assume God is doing Who is behind sickness How we receive healing in a similar way as salvation—by grace through faith How repentance brings healing Jesus's authority to heal and our responsibility to bear His name The Bible, God's still small voice, and the Living Word, all have healing power How our words should bless and not curse Over the course of the full 49 days you will discover: What is God and Jesus's will regarding healing How Jesus fulfilled prophetic verses of healing How God's will is accomplished What we can learn from the remarkable similarity between salvation and healing What do covenants have to do with sickness and healing How to receive the same blessings God promised His people in the Bible How God disciplines and teaches us What faith has to do with healing What we can learn about God by looking at Jesus in the gospels How sin and righteousness affects healing What the Bible teaches us about evil spirits How Jesus showed us to fight the enemy, and how to be equipped for that fight How Satan attacks, and what we can do about it What Jesus told His disciples (and us) to do What is the right atmosphere for healing How to exercise and apply Jesus's name, authority, anointing, and blood How fear and doubt play into sickness and how to overcome them How to heal the soul (thoughts and emotions) What are the promises and benefits of God, and how to claim them How fasting affects healing Many surprising (and practical) elements of healing seen in the Bible which can be applied today Don't forget to get the free resources linked within the book! "What I love about this devotional is that it answers questions about healing (mentally, physically, spiritually and emotionally) in such a relatable way. Each devotional is loaded with Bible verses, a prayer and thought provoking questions to help you journal your journey to healing and restoration. This is a must read for anyone from the new believer to the person that's walked with Christ their whole life. You will gain new understanding of the Scriptures and insight into who God is and how He wants to heal you." — Chris Hendrix, Author of Devotional Guide to Stretching Your Faith, Devotions By Chris, DevotionsByChris.com "Healing is Here is a powerful resource for those pursuing physical healing in their bodies. Written with gentleness and humility, he addresses so many deep concepts in a way that quietly unravels the bad theology we've so often been taught. Jesus truly was Healer while on earth, and His Father is no different. This book is written in an accessible weekly format, so the ideas can be revisited easily as necessary. Healing is part of our portion as believers, so don't live another day sick. Pick up this book and get grounded in what the eternal Word has to say about wholeness in your body!" — Andrea Joy Moede, Writer, Coach, Speaker, Author of Misunderstood, Path of Truth, and God is Light, AndreaJoy.org "I had such a leap in my spirit that this book is going to be so anointed for the times we are in. The introduction and first devotional gave me a hunger to know more about healing." — Danielle Edens, Author of Breaking Out of the Cocoon, Founder of Second Chance Dreamers "John Nichols is an example of a young man whose life has been marvelously transformed when he surrendered to Christ. He now lives to share what he has learned with others. His Bible-based teaching will lead every follower of Jesus into a deeper, more joyful walk." — Joanne Hillman, Author of Listening Prayer, A Perfect Marriage, Song of Salome, and more, JoanneHillman.com Jesus Loves You Xulon Press Jesus Loves you are the words that every believer needs to have on the tip of their tongues. On the streets of Los Angeles he met an angel of the Lord who told him that "Jesus Loves You," and Paul was stopped in his tracks. It was shortly thereafter that he obeyed God's call on his life. Paul is founder of Christian Chaplains Association of America which trains and equips fellow laborers to work in Prisons and hospitals in New York and through out America. I went through a period of depression, brought on by tormenting voices in my head. At the time, most of the people around me associated the depression with Seasonal Affective Disorder (S.A.D), as it mainly seemed to affect me during the winter months. It wasn't until I became a Born Again Christian that I discovered that the problem was actually spiritual. During the time that I suffered from depression, I lost all my confidence and self-esteem. I had no hope. I became nervous and fearful and I wanted to give up and die. The voices made me believe that I was no good, I was useless, but most of all, that I was a wicked and bad person. I got to a point where I didn't recognise myself anymore. I had always considered myself to be good person; reliable, dependable, kind, thoughtful, and caring. Suddenly, I was told I was somebody different. This became too much for me to bear. Even worse, the voices told me that God would reject me, He would never love me and He would turn me away if I went to Him. Being raised as a Catholic, I believed that God loved everyone, so I was absolutely devastated when I believed that I was not good enough to be loved by God. Eight months after becoming Born Again, the Holy Spirit would visit me during the early hours of the morning. He would minister words of peace and comfort to me. This brought healing to my pain. I now feel safe, secure, and significant. I now know that I have purpose to my life. My poems seek to edify, encourage and inspire other readers, and to let them know that Jesus not only changes lives, but He also heals brings peace, joy, hope and comfort into our lives. My book is written in a poetic style. My poems depict my journey to salvation and illustrate how I have grown and matured in Christ. As you read through my poems you will experience the sense of new hope, strength and joy that God has given me through having a relationship with Jesus Christ. Every one of my poems was Holy Spirit inspired to bring comfort and healing, but many of them also serve as words of wisdom, warning, direction and praise. They also show how God inhabits the praises of His people, and how ones praise can completely change your circumstances around. Allow the Holy Spirit to minister to you as He ministered to me as you read through the pages of What Jesus Did For Me'. Just Talk to God WestBow Press A good number of Christians shy away from praying because of misconceptions and fears they have about prayer. Most are inundated with misinformation and false beliefs about what qualifies as a good prayer. This book was birthed out of a deeper desire and hunger for each believer to recognize the power of prayer that they can institute and practice independently. Prayer itself, as well as the approach to prayer and attitude towards prayer, are simplified in this book, granting readers the freedom to pray. Prayer, when rendered to the Holy Spirit, produces more. Among the key topics that are discussed in this book are: Aspects of prayers Common misconceptions about prayer Benefits of prayer Holy Spirit led prayer (the role of the Holy Spirit in prayer) Praying from a victorious position in spiritual warfare How to pray while waiting for the answer How to incorporate prayer in daily routine All of these have been shared so as to free the reader to simply talk to God. Heal the Sick Heal the Sick Training Manual NEW and Improved and Miraculously Tested version 2.0 Heal the Sick Training. Learn how to move in Healing, speak Healing and release Healing to anyone by the power of Jesus Name! All sessions are highly interactive and the training methodology is a three-step process: 1) Listen to the teaching, 2) make the teaching your own, and 3) practice doing the teaching. The session outlined below are designed for anyone who wants to be used by God and be anointed to heal the sick. Anyone can do this...no special calling is needed! The WORD, already gives us our rights' as believers to do the "works of Christ" on earth. In fact, Jesus said to us, "Greater things than these, you will do." (John 14:12) He already gave us the assignment to do this! SESSION 1: SIN AND SICKNESS The scriptures provide us deep insight on to what the origins of sickness are. Throughout His Word, God directs His people to protect themselves against the schemes of the enemy that open doors of sin, sickness and disease. We will study how sickness first came about among the human race. Additionally, we will explore the transmigration of disease within family generations. SESSION 2: SOAKING IN THE HEALING WORD The Healing Word is the provision in the Word of God for healing. We have to understand where healing comes from so that we have a foundational understanding of healing in the Atonement. His Word is made alive and active when we declare it through the Power of the Holy Spirit. The Word releases the promises of healing for today. SESSION 3: ANOINTING THAT EMPOWERS THE WORD The Holy Spirit is what empowers THE Word, so that we don't come to the place where we just get the Word without the anointing. We must have the Word with the anointing. We must have the anointing with the Word. They must go together. The Holy Spirit provides us the wisdom, anointing, knowledge, and love for people. Without our complete dependence on Holy Spirit, we are incapable releasing the Kingdom of God on earth. SESSION 4: MINISTERING HOLY SPIRIT Prayer is the connection we have with the God-head. Jesus is ever interceding for us while we do God's work on earth. We will learn how to expand our Kingdom reality with God through the power of personal communion with the Lord that directs our "soaking" time with Him. As daily practice, this will lead us to develop a presence in the secret place to know what the Father is saying and doing. SESSION 5: LEGAL SPIRITUAL AUTHORITY Our Spiritual Authority is the authority we have to exercise His work as the body of Christ. The head gives the direction, the body does the work. God the Father is not going to come and heal the sick. He's not going to come to save the lost. If that were the case, we wouldn't be here and he would not sent Jesus to die. The body does the work. God has done everything He is going to do about salvation and healing. There is a reason why Jesus declared, "It is Finished" at the cross. We will talk about the authority and anointing we can exercise to His work on earth. SESSION 6: ROADBLOCKS TO HEALING There are many questions regarding healing and people's bodies. Some questions like, "Are we sick for the Glory of God?"; "Is healing for everyone?"; "Why am I not healed yet?" will be reviewed. While these questions have a strong and valid point, we will discuss how God's provision in the atonement have given us full access to deliverance from sin, sickness and disease. SESSION 7: OPERATING A HEALING ROOMS OR A HEALING MINISTRY This is a practical session on how the Healing Rooms operates and a way to training the local church on how to pray for people at the altar ministry, cell ministry or any ministry that releases prayer. We focus on the Love Anointing when dealing with participants. You will learn step-by-step the procedures from beginning to end on how to deal with people with various needs, illnesses and issues that you will confront. My Journey to Divine Healing Healing the Way Jesus Did It -- Salvation* Healing* Authority Author House This book was written from my personal experience with the provisions and principles described in the Bible. My personal health problems encountered over the course of my 73 years on this Earth was in part, the reason this book was written. I share my story now in hope that someone will be blessed my the information set to print here. My primary audience is the American Church, from which my Journey began. In my early years, I was blessed to be a part of the Baptist congregation in Berkeley, California. As time progressed from my exposure to the Gospel in the Church to my actual conversion experience at 12 years old, many questions arose which were not answered by my Church. In my conversations with my peers and family, the gap in the questions and answers only got wider. Many of these questions are answered in this book. It is sufficient to say, MY JOURNEY TO DIVINE HEALING was my effort to organize my life experiences in such a way as to convey both meaning and structure around existence. It is my belief that many people have had, and still have the same life experiences and concerns as myself and have not received satisfactory answers. It is my intent to shed light on these concerns from a Biblical foundation, with logic, knowledge, understanding and wisdom. I believe the reader will be rewarded many times over when digesting the content of this Book. In addition I think the reader will be pleasantly surprised when they begin to do what they learn. Ben Witherington draws on the best new insights from a number of disciplines to provide readers with the benefits of recent innovative ways of analyzing the text of Acts. In addition, Witherington gives detailed attention to major theological and historical issues, including the question of the relationship of Acts to the Pauline letters, the question of early Christian history and how the church grew and developed, the relationship between early Judaism and early Christianity, and the relationship between Christians and the officials of the Roman Empire. (Practical Life) Feasting on the Word: Pentecost and season after Pentecost 1 (Prophers 3-16) Westminster John Knox Press We have been honored to work with a multitude of gifted thinkers, writers, and editors. We present these essays as their offering-and ours-to the blessed ministry of preaching." -From the introduction by David L. Bartlett and Barbara Brown Taylor --Book Jacket. By His Wounds We are Healed Trafford Publishing This is a book for everybody who may be interested in health and happiness in his life here on earth, and in salvation in heaven in the next life. It will be of particular interest to all those involved in the healing ministry in any way. It is aimed especially at those who may be unaware of the very existence of such a ministry, or those who may be somewhat sceptical about it. It is also for all those people in need of physical and mental healing, and who have little or no idea of the important role that the spirit has to play in the healing of the whole person. The book traces the history of the healing ministry in the Church, beginning with Jesus Christ and the apostle. It traces the development of the healing ministry in the early Church, and how this ministry and the sacrament of anointing of the sick gradually became identified with death and dying, and as a result almost died out as a sacrament for those who were sick. It deals with the revival of the healing ministry in modern times, and examines the thorough reformation of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick inaugurated by Vatican II. The author discusses some of the reasons why the healing ministry has not been given the priority it deserves in the pastoral ministry of the Church, and some of the many misunderstandings about this ministry. Finally he discusses how it may be profitable be more fully used in a world that is badly in need of healing. Vox Petri A Theology of Peter Wipf and Stock Publishers Peter stands at the beginning of Christian theology. Christianity's central confessions regarding the person of Jesus, the cross, salvation, the inclusive nature of the people of God, and the end of all things come to us through the apostle who was not only the church's leader but also its first theologian. Peter is the apostle for the whole church and the whole church resonates with his theology. We sing his song, though we may not have glanced at the bottom of the page in the hymnbook to see who wrote the words and composed the tune. Peter is the "lost boy" of Christian theology, a person overlooked as a theological innovator and pillar, but his rightful place is at the head of the table. If we look closely, however, we may recognize that he has been seated there all along. Speaking the Truth in Love Theological and Spiritual Exhortations of Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew Fordham Univ Press A collection of the writings & statements of His All Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, which challenges the taboos & controversies swirling within religious doctrine, addressing issues such as church unity, papal primacy & divisions within Christianity. A Trinitarian Theology of Religions An Evangelical Proposal Oxford University Press, USA Over the last four decades, evangelical scholars have shown growing interest in other religions and their differing theologies. The result has been consensus on some issues and controversy over others, as scholars seek answers to essential questions: How are we to think about and relate to other religions, be open to the Spirit, and at the same time remain evangelical and orthodox? Gerald R. McDermott and Harold A. Netland offer a map of the terrain, describe new territory, and warn of hazardous journeys taken by some writers in exploring these issues. This volume offers critiques of a variety of theologians and religious studies scholars, including evangelicals, but it also challenges evangelicals to move beyond parochial positions. It is both a manifesto and a research program, critically evaluating the last forty years of Christian treatments of religious others, and proposing a comprehensive direction for the future. It addresses issues relating to the religions in both systematic theology and missiology - taking up long-debated questions such as contextualization, salvation, revelation, the relationship between culture and religion, conversion, social action, and ecumenism. The book concludes with responses from four leading thinkers of African, Asian, and European backgrounds: Veli-Matti Karkkainen, Vinoth Ramachandra, Lamin Sanneh, and Christine Schirrmacher. Precious Salvation Holy Spirit Real Conversion AuthorHouse Salvation is real: made free from sin, Satan and the judgement to come by the Lord Jesus Christ. Salvation is eternal, thus why salvation is the greatest miracle of all. If you are healed physically or receive financial miracle one day you will ultimately die but if you are saved you will live eternally with God. The greatest miracle is not the dead raised or the sick healed or delivered from evil spirits or financial breakthrough but salvation. What is salvation? Salvation is a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour. Salvation is personal well-being; it means to be made whole spirit, soul and body. How can I be saved? Salvation is obtained by grace through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Salvation is free gift. The Lord Jesus Christ paid the price; he died on your behalf. How do I know I am saved? There are three evidences of salvation: firstly, your life will be totally transformed, for example transformed from Simeon who denied the Lord Jesus Christ to Peter a key disciple and bold Christian or transformed from Saul the murderer to Paul who found the Lord Jesus Christ and follow him or transformed like Apollos from spiritual ignorance to knowing the right way of the Lord Jesus Christ. Secondly, you will have divine assurance inside of you that you are saved by faith. And thirdly, the Holy Spirit confirms your salvation as he testifies and witnesses in your spirit with his sweet, whispering gentle voice.
